PC:

On 30.6.2005 when Rule was granted in the above petition and interim relief was granted in terms of prayer clause (b) which had two sub-clauses. Sub-clause (ii) is sought to be modified by the present application.

2. What has been granted by this Court after hearing all concerned is stay of all actions based on the allegations leveled in the instant case viz. 133/RA/2004 and show cause notice. The order specifically restrains the respondents the present applicants 2 and 3 from taking any action in relation to case No.133/RA/2004 only. All other prosecutions or investigation for other offences under any enactment are not and cannot be touched by this order.

3. Application is therefore disposed of.
